

Entry Software Chosen to be One of Eight Companies on the Ontario Trade Mission to FOSE and Washington, DC

The government of Ontario Canada has chosen Entry Software Corporation of London Ontario to join the Ontario Trade Mission to FOSE and Washington, DC. This special opportunity was available to only eight Ontario companies.

London, Ontario (PRWEB) May 15, 2014 -- Mark Donais, CEO and founder of Entry Software, reports that Entry Software has been chosen to be one of eight companies representing advanced Information Technology for Ontario based companies.

“This is a great opportunity for Entry Software to showcase our latest product, TeamHeadquarters 7.x.” says Donais. “We’re bringing a new way of looking at IT Work Management to government and to private sector business.”

In its 37th year, FOSE (Federal Office Systems Exposition) has gained a reputation as America’s premier event for government technology professionals. The three-day conference offers comprehensive training in cybersecurity, cloud, mobile government and other hot IT topics. FOSE also delivers policy updates, straight from Capitol Hill and exclusive insights from today’s leading authorities. And, at the FOSE Expo, attendees can see the most comprehensive showcase of technology, tools and best practices in action.
